

Right to vote

Right to vote

People with learning disabilities and autistic people have a right to vote, same as anyone else.

Please support people to access their right to vote in the upcoming General Election on 4th July.

Important steps and dates

Please support people to:

- Check they can vote in a General Election.
- Register to vote by Tuesday, 18th June, 23:59.
- Decide if to vote in person, by post or by proxy.
- Apply for postal vote by Wednesday, 19th June, 17:00.
- Apply for proxy vote by Wednesday, 26th June, 17:00.

Important steps and dates

Please support people to:

- Check they have the right type of ID.
- If the person doesn't have the right type of ID, support them to apply for Voter ID by Wednesday 26th June, 17:00.
- Decide who to vote for – check for easy read manifestos. Request easy read manifestos using these templates.
- Find out where the local polling station is (on the person's poll card). Find out if it is accessible.
- Vote on 4th July, 7 am to 10 pm. Don't forget to bring ID!

Easy read information about politics and voting on:

www.myvotemyvoice.org.uk